WELCOME VISITORS!

We consider it a privilege to have you worship with us today. Please stay for a few minutes after worship so we can get acquainted with you, and you with us. Please complete an Attendance Card, located on the back of the pew in front of you, and hand it to a member of the congregation or use the QR Code in this bulletin to let us know you are here. We have an attended nursery and a training/cry room available if needed.

Sympathy

- Our brother Mack Ezell passed away Tuesday. The service will be held at the church building on Monday, November 16 at 3:00 pm. Please keep Sharon and the family in your prayers.
- Larry Rose's father, Irving Theodore Rose, passed away November 5. The funeral service is Thursday, 11/19 in Boston. The obituary can be viewed at the Floyd Williams Funeral Home website. Cards can be sent to Kiesha Rose, 79 Presidential Drive, Apt #2, Quincy, MA 02169 as well as to Larry.

Prayer Request

- Sally Wallace is in ENCOMPASS Rehab Center in Newnan to start her therapy. Depending on her progress, she may be home in 2-3 weeks. If you would like to visit her while she is there, call first to check her schedule.
- Andrew Pyron, former member, will travel to Dallas to have his 6-week checkup on his bladder cancer to see if the immunotherapy treatments worked. Pray for successful results.
- Susie Graham had a gallstone removed last Monday and had a bile duct stent placed for drainage. She will have this stent for several weeks at which point they will perform another surgery.

LOVE LIKE JESUS

John 13–15 | November Theme — Emulate

I. HE LOVED THEM TO THE _____ (John 13:1)
- A. John tells us that Jesus "loved them unto the end."
  - a. As His own suffering drew near, He kept caring for His disciples.
    1. He washed their feet in chapter _____.
    2. He spoke to their troubled hearts in chapter _____.
    3. In chapter _____, He prepared them for the opposition they would face.
  - b. Consistent, continual, and _____ love is so power! This is how Jesus loved.
- B. To love like Jesus means not choosing who I love or when I love them. Our love is not on a pendulum swinging back and forth.

II. HE LOVED PEOPLE WHO WOULD _____ AND _____ HIM (John 13:2–5, 21–30, 36–38)
- A. _____ and _____ were still at the table when Jesus washed the disciples' feet.
  - a. Jesus knew what _____ intended to do. John also tells us that Jesus was _____ as He spoke about the betrayal (verse 21). His willingness to serve came in the middle of real hurt.
  - b. Then consider _____. Jesus told him plainly that he would deny Him three times. Yet He had already told Peter, "You shall follow me afterwards" (verse 36). Did the Lord predict Peter's restoration?
- B. Has someone's failure changed the way I'm willing to treat them?

III. HE _____ TOOK THE _____ PLACE (John 13:3–5, 12–17)
- A. The Son of Man came to _____ (Mark 10:45). Jesus took up a towel demonstrated His loved by washing the disciples' feet.
- B. "For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you" (John 13:15).

IV. HE OBEYED THE _____ & CALLS US TO OBEY _____ (John 14:31; 15:9–10, 17)
- A. In John 14:31, Jesus says He does what the Father _____ so the world may know He _____ the Father. In John 15:10, He gives His disciples that same _____.
  - a. He kept His Father's commandments and remained in His love.
  - b. We remain in Christ's love as we keep His _____ (Jn. 14:15, 15:9-10).
- B. Our love for Jesus moves us to obey Him, and obedience begins with surrendering our will to His.

V. HE LAID DOWN HIS _____ FOR HIS _____ (John 15:12–13)
- A. "Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends" (John 15:13).
  - a. Earlier that evening, Peter had told Jesus, "I will lay down my life for your sake" (John 13:37). Before the next day was over, Jesus would lay down His life for Peter.
  - b. That is how far Jesus went for the people He loved. And when He says, "Love one another, as I have loved you," He asks us to consider what we're willing to give for someone else's good.
- B. What am I willing to give for someone else's good?

VI. HE TELLS US TO _____ HIS _____ (John 13:15, 34; 15:12–13)
- A. Three times in these chapters, Jesus directly points to His own _____ to tell His disciples how to treat one another.
  - a. John _____ — "I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done for you."
  - b. John _____ — "Love one another as I have loved you."
  - c. John _____ — "Love one another as I have loved you." Then He shows how far that love goes.
- B. Now read John 15:17–18 together. Jesus commands His disciples to love one another, and in the very next verse He tells them the world will _____ them. In verses 18–25, He reminds them that the world _____ Him first.
- C. Jesus expects His disciples to _____ one another even when the world responds to them with _____.
- D. And according to John 13:35, that love is how people will recognize us as His disciples.
