WELCOME VISITORS!

We consider it a privilege to have you worship with us today. Please stay for a few minutes after worship so we can get acquainted with you, and you with us. Please complete an Attendance Card, located on the back of the pew in front of you, and hand it to a member of the congregation or use the QR Code in this bulletin to let us know you are here. We have an attended nursery and a training/cry room available if needed.

Sympathy

Our brother Mack Ezell passed away Tuesday. The service will be held at the church building on Monday, November 16 at 3:00 pm. Please keep Sharon and the family in your prayers.

HAVE THE MIND OF CHRIST

TEXT: Philippians 2:3–8
DISCUSSION:

I. JESUS CHOSE _____ OVER _____ (Philippians 2:3, 5–7)

A. Paul begins with this instruction: "Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit."
   a. _____ _____ asks, "How can this benefit me?" _____ asks, "How can this make me look important?"
   b. Both attitudes damage relationships because they place self at the center.

B. _____ is the _____ of selfish ambition/pride.

C. Jesus _____ humility throughout His _____.
   a. He was born in _____ circumstances (Luke 2:7).
   b. He associated with people others _____ (Luke 5:29–32).
   c. He _____ the feet of His disciples (John 13:3–15).
   d. He willingly endured _____ at the cross.
   e. Jesus shows us that true greatness can willingly take the place of service.

D. We must demonstrate that same _____.

E. Application: We cannot have the mind of Christ while constantly demanding our own way.

II. JESUS _____ THE _____ OF OTHERS (Philippians 2:4, 7)

A. Paul writes: "Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others."
   a. The word "_____" matters. Paul recognizes that we have responsibilities and needs of our own. He calls us to expand our concern so that other people's needs receive our attention, too.
   b. Selfishness narrows our vision. We notice our inconvenience, our disappointment, and our unmet expectations. The mind of Christ teaches us to see beyond ourselves.

B. Throughout His _____, we see His attention to others:
   1. He had _____ on people who were weary and scattered (Matthew 9:36).
   2. He _____ children when the disciples tried to turn them away (Mark 10:13–16).
   3. He stopped for Bartimaeus when others told the man to be _____ (Mark 10:46–52).
   4. Even from the cross, He made _____ for His mother's care (John 19:26–27).
   5. People's needs mattered to Him, even when attending to them was costly.

C. Concern begins with _____ _____.

D. Concern must become _____.
   a. It is possible to feel _____ without offering _____.
   b. James 2:15–16 describes someone who sees a brother or sister lacking clothing and food, offers kind words, and provides nothing. James asks what good that does.
   c. The mind of Christ moves us toward _____ _____.

III. THE MIND OF CHRIST IS A _____ OF _____ (Philippians 2:8)

A. Philippians 2:8: "And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross."

B. Jesus was obedient even when obedience was _____. Hebrews 5:8–9 explains that Jesus learned obedience through the things He suffered and became the author of eternal salvation to those who obey Him.
   a. Jesus came to do the _____ of His Father (John 6:38).
   b. Consider Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane.
      1. Luke 22:42: "Nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done."
      2. Jesus understood the suffering that awaited Him.
      3. He knew the physical pain and humiliation He would experience.
      4. Yet He submitted Himself to the Father's will.

C. True obedience requires _____.
   a. It is easy to obey God when His will agrees with our preferences.
   b. The mind of Christ says, "Not my will, but God's will."
