WELCOME VISITORS!

We consider it a privilege to have you worship with us today. Please stay for a few minutes after worship so we can get acquainted with you, and you with us. Please complete an Attendance Card, located on the back of the pew in front of you and hand it to a member of the congregation or use the QR code in this bulletin to let us know you are here. We have an attended nursery and a training/cry room available if needed.

Prayer Request

- Susie Graham will see a specialist at Piedmont Atlanta on November 3 to determine a date for her procedure.
- Margie Fields will have an angiogram on Monday, 10/19.
- Sally Wallace saw the foot specialist last week to access how her foot is healing. She will see him again in two weeks. Pray she will be able to find a boot for her foot.
- Continue to pray for Austin and Pagie Tittle and baby Lucas.
- Continue to pray for Abby Lorence's dad, Brian Collins, as he recovers.

To the Fayetteville Church of Christ,

It was great hearing from you and knowing that we were in your prayers during Jerry's kidney surgery. God heard your prayers and guided the hearts, minds, and hands of the Vanderbilt Hospital staff who attended to him.

All went well, and Jerry is getting around like before the surgery and is on the brink of a full recovery.

We thank God for a Christian family and friends such as you.

Many Blessings,

In Christian Love,

Jerry & Miranda Kendrix

CONSIDER YOUR WAYS

TEXT: Haggai 1

I. EXAMINE WHAT WE ARE _____ _____ (Haggai 1:2)

A. The people did not say, "We will never rebuild the temple." They said it was not time yet.
   a. That can be a _____ answer because it sounds temporary.
   b. Sometimes a delay is necessary. But sometimes "not yet" is how we avoid doing what God has called us to do.

B. Scripture calls us to recognize our _____ and use our _____.
   a. Knowing the _____ we should do carries responsibility. - James 4:17
   b. We must make wise use of our _____. - Ephesians 5:15–16

C. Examination question: What have I been putting off?

II. EXAMINE WHERE OUR _____ AND _____ GO (Haggai 1:3–4)

A. God asked how the people could live in their finished houses while His house lay in _____.
   a. The problem was not that they had _____.
   b. The problem was that they had found time and resources for their own _____ while saying there was no time for God's work.

B. Our situation is different. We are not commanded to rebuild a temple in Jerusalem. But the question about priorities still reaches us.
   a. Jesus says in Matthew 6:33 to _____ first the _____ of _____.
   b. What gets the best of my time? What do I protect on my calendar? What receives my energy? Will worship, service, Bible study, or care for others gets whatever is left?

C. Examination question: Do my choices support the priorities I claim to have?

III. EXAMINE WHAT YOUR _____ ARE _____ (Haggai 1:5–6, 9)

A. God directed the people to _____ what their efforts were producing.
   a. They _____ much but harvested little.
   b. Their food, drink, and clothing did not satisfy their _____.
   c. Their wages seemed to disappear into a bag with _____.

B. God explained why this was happening.
   a. His house remained in ruins while they attended to their own houses.
   b. Their hardship in this passage was a specific act of divine judgment.
   c. We should not conclude that every hardship today results from personal sin.

C. We should examine the spiritual _____ of our _____.

D. Examination question: Are my habits producing the spiritual growth I desire?

IV. EXAMINE YOUR _____ TO _____ (Haggai 1:7–8)

A. God gave the people a clear course of action: Go to the _____. Bring _____. Rebuild the _____. Do the work so that God would be _____ and _____.

B. Recognizing a problem must lead to a response.
   a. We must examine our ways and return to the Lord. — Lamentations 3:40
   b. We must practice the Word we hear. — James 1:22–25

C. The people _____ to God's message. — Haggai 1:12–14
   a. They obeyed the voice of the Lord.
   b. God assured them, "I am with you."
   c. They began working on His house.

D. Examination question: What specific change will I begin making this week?
